

The New Testament honours
the rebels who broke the rules and changed things for the better.
Music is a massive part of the bar experience, both as a customer and a bartender – the right song can make a night, set the mood, remind us of the past or get us through a rough time. With that in mind, we are honouring the great musicians who we've lost with each cocktail thoughtfully crafted and inspired by these artists and their music.

COCKTAILS

10.50
EACH

ROUND MIDNIGHT

Miles Davis, 1926 – 1991

Strong, Savoury

Ketel One Vodka, Averna, Kahlúa, Cold Brew Coffee, Caramel Syrup

Our take on the Espresso Martini – this drink is smooth, rich and the perfect way to start or end the night.

Miles Davis, father of the cool jazz movement is still regarded as one of the greatest trumpeters of all time.

SUPERSTAR

Karen Carpenter, The Carpenters, 1950 – 1983

Sweet, Fruity

Grey Goose Vodka, Mango Cordial, Lime Juice, Passion Fruit Syrup, Pineapple, Prosecco Shot

Of course we couldn't leave out our take on the world's biggest cocktail, the Pornstar Martini, and the name followed quite naturally.

Karen Carpenter formed The Carpenters in the '70s with her brother Richard. A drummer, bassist and vocalist, her sweet, haunting sound has been credited by many as 'the best female voice in the world'.

DAY IN THE LIFE

John Lennon, The Beatles, 1940 – 1980

Long, Fruity

Bacardi Cuatro Rum, 1800 Coconut Tequila, Coco Réal, Pineapple, Averna

Somewhere between a Pina Colada and a Painkiller lies this wonderfully smooth drink – light, fruity and friendly with a wonderful coconut finish.

Beatle John Lennon was a multi-instrumentalist, lyrical genius and peace activist, characterised by the rebellious nature and acerbic wit in his music.

WARSAW

Ian Curtis, Joy Division, 1956–1980

Long, Fruity

Żubrówka Bison Grass Vodka, Disaronno, Lime, Pressed Apple Juice

This drink, while paying tribute to the country that brought us Żubrówka, the Polish Bison Grass Vodka, also nods to Joy Division, pioneers of the post-punk sound.

Ian Curtis, lead singer of Joy Division's song writing was filled with dark imagery of desolation, emptiness and alienation. Curtis sadly committed suicide a month before the release of their second album, days before their first US tour.

SIGN O' THE TIMES

Prince, 1958–2016

Strong, Spicy

Kraken Black Spiced Rum, Laphroaig 10 Y.O. Whisky, Homemade Ginger Beer, Lime, Pepper

A fresh take on a Dark n' Stormy with a lot more fire.

Prince, widely recognised as the father of Funk Rock, would fuse funk, jazz and blues to create a sound that defined the early '80s sound and beyond.

DEVIL IN DISGUISE

Elvis Presley, 1935–1977

Long, Refreshing

1800 Tequila Blend, Averna, Lime, Cola

It's the Long Island Iced Tea you never knew you needed! 1800 Silver, Reposado and Anejo with a little spiced black rum and cola to create the spicier cousin of the drink you know and love.

Elvis was the 'King of Rock & Roll' and one of the most significant icons of the 20th century, bringing a new power and energy to blues music.

10.50
EACH

MODERN LOVE

David Bowie, 1947–2016

Fruity, Sweet

Patrón Silver Tequila, Hennessy, Lime Juice, Blackberries, Bell's Brewery Black Bull Stout

Blackberries and tequila create a sweet richness, enhanced by the coffee and vanilla hit of our house brewed stout.

Icon David Bowie was a musical chameleon, game changer and cultural pioneer, with 26 albums released throughout his 50 year career.

RAMBLE ON

John Bonham, Led Zeppelin, 1948–1980

Fruity, Sweet

Method and Madness Gin, Pimento Dram, Lemon Juice, Berry Coulis

Our take on a gin Bramble; it took a lot of restraint not to call it Bramble On! The added Pimento Dram gives a mouthful of spices to make this a light, sweet but remarkably charming drink.

John 'Bonzo' Bonham, drummer with Led Zeppelin, was esteemed for his speed, power, fast single-footed kick drumming, distinctive sound and feel for the groove. Bonham is still regarded as one of the most influential drummers in history.

WHITE SWAN

Marc Bolan, T-Rex, 1947–1977

Long, Refreshing

Plymouth Sloe Gin, Lemon, Egg White Alternative, Soda

Our take on a Gin Fizz; Sloe gin is warm and fruity, with a velvety bubbly finish from the white and soda.

Marc Bolan, was the lead singer and founder of T-Rex and pioneer of the glam rock movement. He had a lifelong, friendly rivalry with David Bowie which kept them both at the top of their game.

BACK TO BLACK

Amy Winehouse, 1983–2011

Long, Fruity

Bushmills Black Bush Whiskey, Blackberries, Homemade Ginger Beer, Bitters Mix

Somewhere between a Julep and a Mule, blackberries and ginger give a tartness and spice that is tempered by the whiskey and honey, giving this drink loads of flavour.

Amy Winehouse was the pre-eminent vocal talent of her generation with her eclectic mix of musical genres, including soul, rhythm and blues and jazz.

GOOD OLD FASHIONED LOVER BOY

Freddie Mercury, Queen, 1946–1991

Short, Boozy

1800 Reposado Tequila, Creyente Mezcal, Avera, Agave

Mezcal, the smoky cousin of Tequila, is paired with Patrón's finest aged tequila to make an Old Fashioned wholly different than what you're used to.

Queen (and indeed Freddie Mercury's sound), continues to shape and influence music to this day, with their work inspiring the heavy metal movement as well as Mercury's unique 'showman style' inspiring pop acts like Robbie Williams, Lady Gaga and Katy Perry.

THE MAN COMES AROUND

Johnny Cash, 1932–2003

Short, Sour

Hinch 5 Y.O. Whiskey, Maraschino, Lemon, Agave, Egg White Alternative, Bitters Mix

A very different whiskey sour, served neat, there is little room for error in this drink.

Much of Johnny Cash's music contained themes of sorrow, moral tribulation, and redemption influenced by his life-long relationship between music and the bible.

SLIGHT RETURN

Jimi Hendrix, 1942–1970

Short, Sour

Bacardi Rum Blend, Wray & Nephew Overproof Rum, Orgeat, Lime, Bitters

Our take on a Mai Tai & Trader Vic's signature drink.
We add Overproof Rum for an extra kick.

Jimi Hendrix played guitar unlike anyone else with his unique fusion of blues, jazz, rock and psychedelia. Being left handed, he played the right handed guitar upside down, creating completely unique sounds.

This contains nuts – substitute available

WAITING FOR THE MAN

Lou Reed, Velvet Underground, 1942–2013

Long, Fruity

Bacardi Rum Blend, Wray and Nephew Overproof Rum, Lime, Pineapple Juice

Somewhere between a Zombie and a Painkiller lies this wonderful concoction.

Lou Reed with the Velvet Underground fused street-level urgency with elements of European avant-garde music, marrying beauty and noise, while bringing a whole new lyrical honesty to rock & roll poetry.

BABA O'REILLY

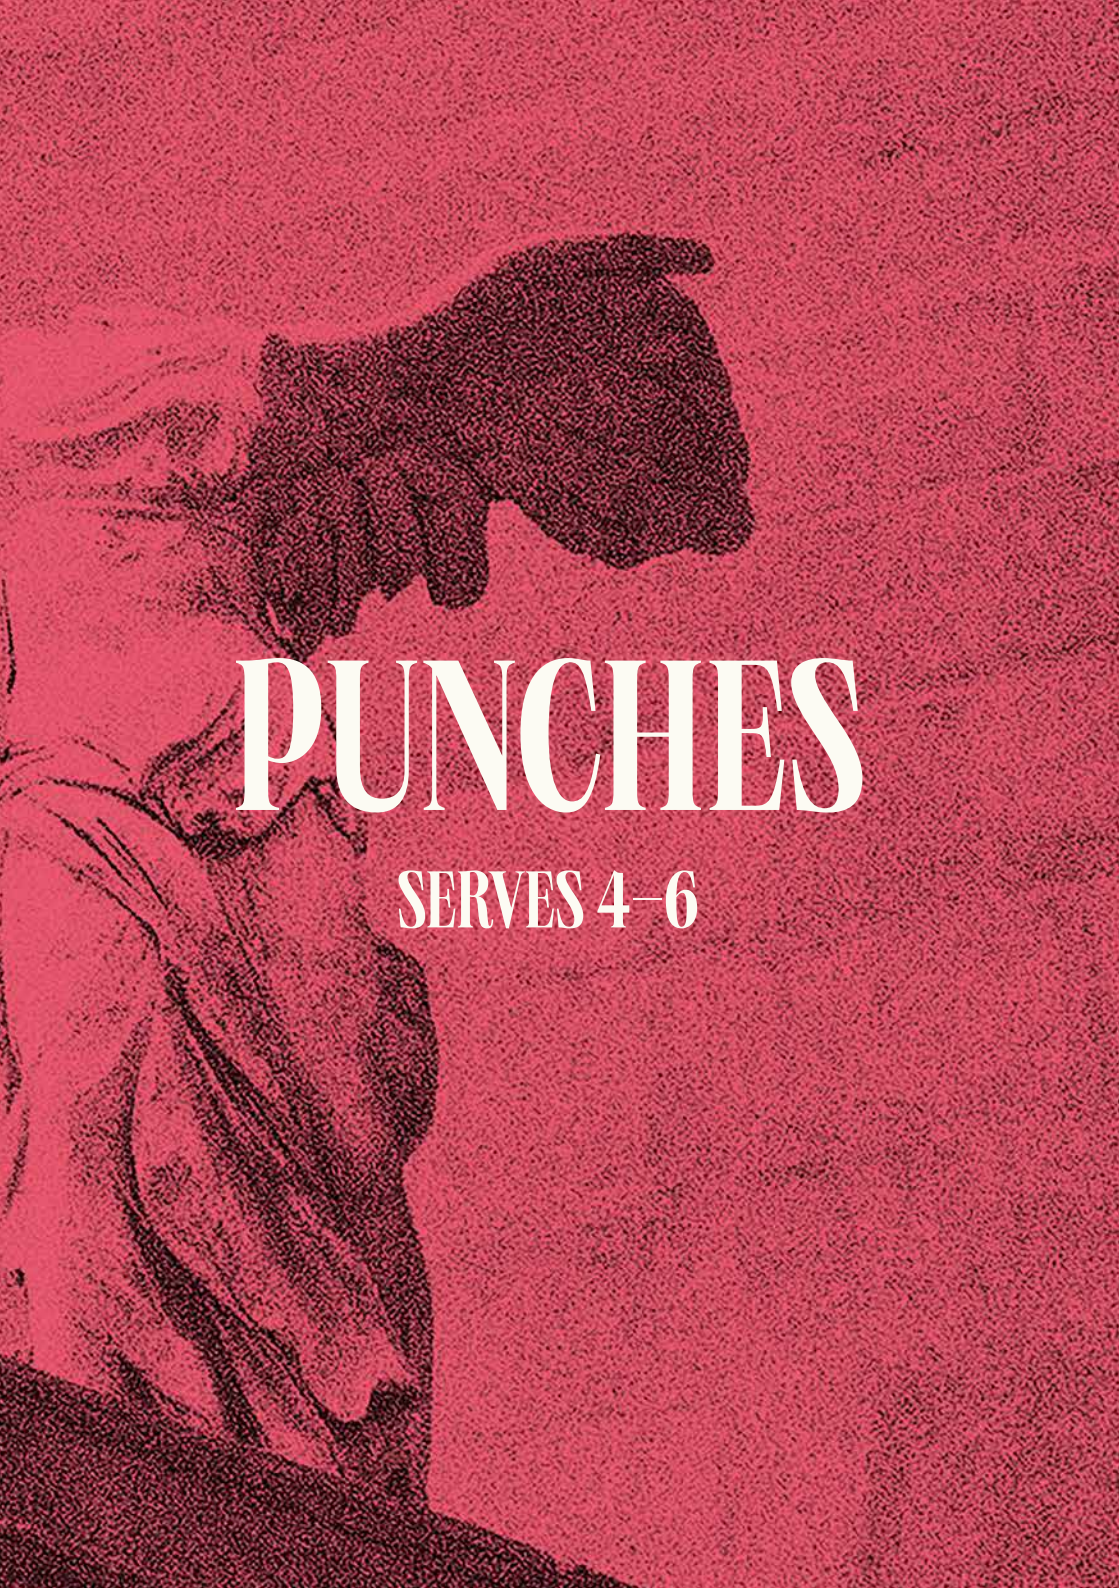

Keith Moon, The Who, 1946–1978

Long, Refreshing

Bacardi Carta Blanca Rum, St~Germain Elderflower Liqueur,
Lime, Pear Cordial, Mint, Prosecco

Think of this as a Mojito on holiday in Paris – light and refreshing, but with floral tones and a splash of sparkling. A drink to take your time over.

The legacy Keith Moon, drummer with The Who, left on music was inescapable, from their on-stage antics to the creation of rock opera. His reputation remains one of the greatest stickmen in the history of rock music.

PUNCHES

SERVES 4-6

39.50
EACH

HEAVEN AND HELL

Ronnie James Dio, Black Sabbath, 1942–2010

Refreshing, Sweet

Bulleit Bourbon & Rye, Lemon, Agave, Mint, Homemade Ginger Beer

A combination of a Julep and a Mule, this refreshing drink still has a bit of fire in its heart.

Ronnie James Dio possessed one of the greatest voices in all of heavy metal and had the heart to match. Best known for fronting Black Sabbath, he was also in the bands Elf, Rainbow, Heaven & Hell and DIO.

IN BLOOM

Kurt Cobain, Nirvana, 1967–1994

Fruity, Refreshing

Ninth Wave Gin, Berry Coulis, Agave, Pimento Dram, Homemade Lemonade

Berries, gin and spices lengthened with homemade lemonade.
This is a light, friendly drink.

Nirvana frontman Kurt Cobain, through his angst-fuelled song writing and anti-establishment persona, widened the thematic conventions of mainstream rock music. Still regarded as one of the most influential musicians in the history of alternative rock.

BLACK HOLE SUN

Chris Cornell, Soundgarden, Audioslave, 1964–2017

Light, Sour

Patrón Tequila Blend, Averna, Grapefruit Juice, Prosecco

A (very) long Paloma, grapefruit and bubbly paired with Patrón Silver and Reposado.

Chris Cornell is considered one of the founding fathers of the 1990s grunge movement as vocalist and rhythm guitar for Soundgarden and Audioslave.

NON-ALCOHOLIC COCKTAILS

7.50
EACH

DIRTY DEEDS

Bon Scott, AC/DC, 1946–1980

Long, Refreshing

Lyre's American Malt, Homemade Ginger Beer, Lime, Pepper, Bitters

A Dark 'n' Stormy without the storm! A spicy ginger beer with lime and pepper.

Originally born in Scotland, Ronald Belford 'Bon' Scott was the original singer and songwriter for hard rock band AC/DC. A rock star and a dangerous one at that. He died under unfortunate, though not exactly mysterious circumstances, after a night of heavy drinking.

BRAND NEW CADILLAC

Joe Strummer, The Clash, 1952–2002

Long, Sweet

Lime, Elderflower Cordial, Mint, Pressed Apple Juice

Something of an Elderflower Mojito, this is a beautifully easy drinking.

Joe Strummer founded The Clash after being inspired by a Sex Pistols gig in London. His explosive political lyrics, musical experimentation, and rebellious attitude had a far-reaching influence on alternative rock music.

REASONS TO BE CHEERFUL

Ian Dury, Ian Dury and the Blockheads, 1942–2000

Short, Refreshing

Lyre's Dark Cane, Lime Juice, Pineapple, Agave

Lyre's non-alcoholic spirit is mixed with pineapple, lime and agave to create this smooth, light concoction.

Ian Dury rose to fame in the late 1970s, during the punk and new wave era of rock music. His lyrics were a combination of lyrical poetry, word play, observations of everyday life, character sketches and sexual humour.
